Accreditation Standards

The following standards will be considered by the Commission in granting, denying, or withdrawal of accreditation of sponsors, programs, or parts of programs:

- A. Courses must have significant or practical content;
- B. Subject matter must deal primarily with the theory, practice or ethics of law and the legal profession;
- C. Courses must be directed to and intended for an audience of lawyers or judges;
- D. Faculty members must be qualified by practical or academic experience to teach the subject;
- E. High quality written materials must be distributed to participants;
- F. Suitable classroom or laboratory setting must be provided for participants;
- G. Ethical considerations pertaining to the subject matter should be included in the program;
- H. Audi-visual and Media Presentations.
 - 1. Audio-visual or media presentations, including telephone and on-line seminars, are acceptable as follows:
 - (a) A faculty member is in attendance or available by telephone hook-up to comment and answer questions; or
 - (b) Other appropriate mechanisms, as determined by the Commission, are present to enable the attendee to participate or react with the presenters and other attendees. Appropriate mechanisms include quizzes or examinations, response tracking, user prompts, and instant messaging.
 - 2. In addition to meeting the standards of A through G above, audio-visual or media presentations must:
 - (a) Utilize some mechanism to monitor course participation and completion in such a manner that certification of attendance is controlled by the provider. Courses must not be susceptible to a "fast forward" finish by attendees;
 - (b) High quality written materials must be available to be downloaded or otherwise furnished so that the attendees will have the ability to refer to such materials during and subsequent to the presentation;
 - (c) Telephone and on-line educational activities must be pre-approved by the Commission;
 - (d) Telephone activities will be accredited for actual time spent to a maximum of 90 minutes per activity and on-line educational activities, to include live webcasts, will be accredited for the actual time spent to a maximum of 6 hours per activity; and
 - (e) Providers shall furnish to the Commission password and/or log-in capabilities for accredited programs. Access will allow for review of course mechanisms, such as interactive functionality. Any such activity may be audited by 1 or more representatives of the Commission without charge.
 - 3. CLE credit earned through audio-visual or media presentations and applied to the annual 14 hours minimum requirement shall not exceed 6 hours of credit per annual reporting period.
- I. A list of course/program attendees must be kept and retained for 2 years to assist the Commission in verifying course attendance; and
- J. A written report of attendees shall be submitted to the Commission within 30 days of the course/program.

IN-HOUSE CLE RESTRICTIONS

In-House CLE. In-House CLE, which is defined as CLE courses, training, programs, etc. sponsored or offered by law firms (individually or collectively), corporate legal departments, and similar organizations (but excluding public/governmental organizations and their subdivisions, agencies, etc.) primarily for the education of their members and employees, may be approved for credit under the rules and regulations applicable to other sponsors, subject to the following additional conditions:

- (1) The courses shall be submitted for approval on a course-by-course rather than an approved-sponsor basis;
- (2) The courses, including all written materials related thereto, must be filed with the application for accreditation on or before the date on which the course is to be held.;
- (3) The courses must be attended by at least 5 attorneys, not including the instructor; and
- (4) No more than one-half of the approved credit for any reporting period may be earned through in-house programs.
